Offshore Development

We use the latest technologies around, but can also service and work with dated ones – we've been there and done that. All Services offered to our local clients are also offered to clients offshore.

We've been doing it for 24+ years now – and believe us, we know exactly how to and what and why and where.

All company professionals are full-time staff and work in teams on the Microsoft (DotNet and allied Technologies – including Xamarin) and PHP and allied technologies platforms. We also do full-stack Mobile Development for the Android and iOS Platforms.

Our rates are competitive and our staff not just young and enthusiastic, but also have team leads and team seniors that have years of experience providing clients with solutions like those you are seeking. Our quality is second to none and we pride ourselves in that.

We have more than 75 full-stack developers that work with the latest technologies and trends.

All our Offshore development services are delivered with full professional support to the end-client (you!) – including full documentation and source code.
